Women to Vote.
 At the election, which occurs in April, 1895, the women will be given the suffrage to a limited extent, that voting for members of the school board. It is altogether probable that a number of women will be nominated for members of the board and elected. It will be interesting to know just how much interest they will take in the contest and with what wisdom they will exercise their new power. 21

Grand Dance.
 The Star Hose Co., of the Napoleon Fire Department, are making extensive arrangements for a grand Thanksgiving Masquerade Dance, which will eclipse anything of the kind ever held in the city. The opera house has been secured, good music and proper engaged, and cash prizes will be given as follows: $5 each for the best costume, lady or gentleman; $2.50 each for the most costume, lady or gentleman. Tickets will be but 75c. 21

Will Run All Night.
 It has been decided that the electric light plant will run all night, thus affording consumers the use of the light at any hour of the night. This is a convenience which is afforded in but few places where electric light plants are in operation, and it is questionable whether it can be kept up in Napoleon, but our plant will start in upon that plan, and it is to be hoped it can be maintained. As the rates for light have been placed at a low figure, everybody within reach of the circuit should patronize the plant and use electric light, which is superior to any other and but little dearer. 21

We have trimmed up a large lot of nice hats that we will sell you for $1.50 each at Mrs. Frease's. 21

Former Resident of Napoleon Married.
 To-day, O. J. Spofford, who built the factory in this city in the early '70s was married at Toledo, to Mrs. Nellie Scott, a sister of Mrs. Pete Detrick of this city. The wedding occurred at the home of Mrs. Osborn, the bride's mother. 21

This match, which will be a surprise to many of the people, was made at the World's fair. 21

A Good Man Called to His Long Home.
 Friends were startled Saturday morning to learn of the death of Mr. Peter Knipp, of Flatrock township, many of them not knowing that he had been sick. We understand he had been confined to his house for some two weeks, suffering from complications of disease, which ultimately resulted in death early Saturday morning. He was aged 54 years, 6 months and 9 days, and was an old and respected citizen. His wife preceded him to the spirit world a year or so ago, whose death was a severe blow to him. The funeral took place from the Knipp church on Tuesday forenoon, Rev. Fisher conducting the services, the remains being followed to their last resting place in Forest Hill cemetery by a large concourse of relatives and friends. 21

Our men's Melton and Beaver overcoats at $8 and $10 are 25 per cent. cheaper than the exclusive clothier will ask you for the same goods. A few moments given to an inspection of our stock will be profitably spent. 21 D. WILSON.

Lady Minstrels.
BAZAR AND SUPPER.
 The ladies of the Presbyterian church and congregation will hold a Bazar Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the first week in December, in the new room of Koller & Augenstein, at which place a supper will be given on Friday evening of that week. Everybody knows what the suppers are which are gotten up by these ladies, and if you don't, it is time you were becoming acquainted with them. 21

In connection with the Bazar, a musical show will be given at the opera house on each of the above evenings. About twenty of the ladies of the Presbyterian congregation will take part in this entertainment, which is wholly given by the ladies. Seats for the lady minstrels will be at a premium, as everybody will want to be present. Prices and further particulars later. 21

Manner
 As well as Matter should always be considered in advertising. A good advertisement badly set doesn't catch the eye and therefore doesn't pull. Look over the NORTHWEST advertisements. Aren't they nicely displayed? They're made up from new display type faces, new borders, and set by competent printers. They're fair to look upon, but, best of all, they go among the buying classes, who have taste as well as money, and appreciate a manner as well as a matter.

 Ogarita, the Mexie-Indian actress, and her company of players, headed by the young actor, Karl Bayard Steers, will remain with us the balance of the week. The company is a good one and deserves better patronage than it received the first two nights of the week. On Monday evening, "A Noble Outcast" was excellently rendered. Mr. Steers being exceptionally fine. On Tuesday evening "Macbeth" was given with some fine acting by Ogarita. About 25 people from Holgate were present to see this excellent play. On Wednesday evening the "Old Homestead" will be given. The company is composed of ladies and gentlemen and deserves introduction every evening by Miss Baker, who is a thorough artist. 2t

Annual Book Sale.
 The tenth annual book sale has just begun at Saur & Baisley's Drug and Book Store and will continue from day to day until the first of January. This sale affords everybody an opportunity of procuring some of the very best literature at very low prices, sometimes these prices run way below the publishers' lowest rates. Many of the books and some of the stationery are often bought in job lots from houses that are overstocked with certain kinds of goods and in order to reduce their stock they will sell at almost any price even sometimes less than half their cost. Remember that if there is anything in the line of a book or stationery of any kind that this is the opportunity of securing goods in this line, very often at your own prices. 2t

Bloomers.
 What is a bloomer dress? A lady gives the following explanation: "The bloomer dress is a pair of trousers very baggy at the knees, abnormally full about the pistol pockets, and considerably loose where you strike a match. The garment is cut decole at the south end, and the bottoms tied around the ankles or knees to keep the mics out. You can't put it over your head, as you do your corsets, but you sit on the floor and pull it on just as you do your stockings—one foot in each compartment. You can easily tell which is the right side to have in front, by the button on the neck-band." 2t

We give to our trade a beautiful atlas of the world with every 30 dollars worth of goods bought of us. 2t

Age and Youth.
 General Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky, has passed his four score mark, but in his bosom the spark of love had not gone out. The bride is a Miss Dorcas Richardson, a domestic in the household of the General. 2t

She was but 15 years of age. When it became rumored that Mr. Clay was to marry Miss Dorcas a holy war of opposition broke out against it on the part of his children, who procured every preacher's consent for miles around not to perform the ceremony. But the old war horse knew a thing or two. 2t

At the appointed hour, Squire Douglas appeared at the Clay residence, and in the presence of the house servants, and the farm hands, five in number, the knot was tied. Clay is very wealthy and very old. Hence the cause of the opposition of the children. Their loss is Dorcas's gain. 2t

Hart, One of the Alleged Pandling County Murderers, Puts Blame on Others.
 A special dispatch from Paulding Tuesday to the Toledo Commercial, contains the following:
 Sheriff Straley, after a long session, has at last given out important information that will throw a great deal of light on the mystery that surrounded the murder of the Good children. In an interview with the Commercial reporter he said, "I am satisfied now that I have the right parties and have had them all the time, and I am sure they will be convicted." He had occasion to call Hart a liar the other day when the latter protested his innocence and said that Cain and Brindle had done the terrible deed and now they were trying to throw it on the shoulders of an innocent party. The preliminary trial will be held Thursday. 2t

See our line of children's cloaks, such a beautiful assortment is seldom seen. 2t

RESERVOIR LEASED.
 The Ohio State Canal Commissioners to-day, says a dispatch to the Commercial Gazette, concluded leases for $33,800 worth of State lands. The largest tract is one-half of section 15, township 6, in Mercer county, containing 320 acres and valued at $16,000. There are two other tracts of 160 acres each in Mercer county, valued at $8,000. The 320 and one 160 acre tract are leased to Isaac W. Shedy, and the other 160 to George H. Houser. All these are for ten years, and are leases for oil prospecting. The greater part of the land is under water, and crabs will have to be erected to drill for oil or gas. It is thought here that the Standard Oil Company is behind this transaction. The land referred to lies under the northwestern portion of the St. Marys reservoir. There have already been two hundred and twenty-five wells drilled on the northwestern edge of this lake and a number are under water, but all have been large producers. 2t

Give us a chance and we will give you values that you will remember when you are grandfathers. Honeck, the clothier. 2t

SHOOTING QUAIL.
 The New Law Only Prevents the Shipping out of the State.
 As nearly every hunter knows, a law was passed last May which forbids the selling of quail.
 There has been many opinions as to the extent and scope of the new law, and the following opinion of Attorney General Richards will be interesting to many. He says: "The act does not prohibit the sale of quail in the markets of the State, but it does make it an offense to kill quail at any time for the purpose of such sale in the State's markets. The person who kills the birds for such purposes is the offender, who should be prosecuted. The person who kills the birds for transportation beyond the limits of the State or has the birds in his possession with intent to procure their transportation beyond the State is violating the law and is liable to prosecution. 2t
